BELONG TROOP MEETING INVITATION

As an American Heritage Girl, you know first-hand how much fun being part of a Troop can be! Do you have a friend that might like to be an American Heritage Girl too? Have you thought about asking her to come to a Troop meeting with you? Well now's your chance! Girls love hearing about new activities from friends! Many AHG girls have joined a Troop because they were invited by someone they knew. You could be that friend for another girl who is looking to make new friends and enjoy activities like badge work, service, and outdoor adventure!

You can make this invitation your own creation by adding color, stickers, glitter, googly eyes, pom-poms, or whatever craft items you have at home. Don't forget to include your Troop meeting information! When you give this special invitation to your friend, you are telling her that you think she should BELONG with AHG.

How to Play

1. Find a friend who you think would love AHG.
2. Customize this fun invitation just for her! Don't forget to include your name and all the details of your Troop meeting inside.
3. Ask your friend to choose FAITH, SERVICE, FUN, or FRIENDS.
4. Spell out the letters of the word she chose while opening the invitation in alternating directions.
5. Ask your friend to choose a number and correlating fun fact about AHG.
6. Count out to the number she chose while opening the invitation in alternating directions.
7. Ask your friend to choose another number and open that flap to reveal her question.
8. Ask your friend the question on the underside of the flap she chose (hint: she will say yes!)
9. Invite her to your Troop meeting by opening the invitation up and laying it flat, revealing all the info she'll need to know.
10. Gift this invitation to her and start planning a fun meeting for her to attend!
